

richardson groves

Author Tim Lerwill releases his new book 'The Snow Sheep'

Tim Lerwill, an Associate at Richardson Groves has recently released his new book, The Snow Sheep, as part of the Farmer Tim Stories brand.

Tim is an Associate Member of the Society of Authors and as well as having a successful career as a Chartered Accountant he has within six months taken this book from his original concept through to publication.

Farmer Tim stories are based around experiences and situations encountered by Tim whilst growing up on a farm in North Devon. The children's book has been very well received and can be purchased from www.ebay.co.uk, www.amazon.co.uk, www.lerwill.co.uk and www.waterstones.com. It is also stocked in Oldfield Park Bookshop, Mr B's Emporium, Bath and Bradford—on—Avon Bookshop.

The book has now been entered in the Red House Children's Book Award 2010 and the second book in the Farmer Tim series is coming soon, 'The Vegetable Patch'.

For more information you can click on the link to Tim's website which is on our 'Useful Links' page.

What's on

For more marketing information

Nikki Jeakings
Chartered Marketer
nikki@richardsongroves.com
01225 443014