Directors Curry Night

After the success of the first Directors curry night, Tim Lerwill of Richardson Groves Accountants and Tim Gofton of Mogers Solicitors are planning the second one in what will be an ongoing series of business curry evenings.

Tim & Tim host the informal evenings of curry and conversation, where likeminded directors are able to discuss and exchange ideas.

Tim & Tim are both Associates at their respective firms, Tim Gofton specialises in Employment Law at Mogers, regularly advising both individuals and companies on contentious and non-contentious employment matters.

Tim Lerwill is an experienced Accountant at Richardson Groves and focuses on providing his clients with more than just audit and accounting services. Tim's skills as a business advisor enable him to assist clients with commercial advice and business development.

The evenings are a great way to share ideas and interact with individuals focused upon developing their business.
