Sir Peter Hall Season 2009

SPONSORED BY RICHARDSON GROVES

Once again Richardson Groves are delighted to announce their ongoing sponsorship of the Theatre Royal in Bath. Richardson Groves have sponsored the Sir Peter Hall Season for several years now. Their association with one of the most prestigious Directors over his seventh summer residency at the Theatre Royal Bath is another demonstration of Richardson Groves' ongoing commitment to support local arts and charity organisations.

This year the season begins on 25th June and runs right through to 29th August 2009, during this time we will see productions of several modern and classic plays.

The Theatre Royal provides guests with the opportunity to see the Sir Peter Hall productions before they tour the country and transfer to London.
